	During October 1952, the National Council of the Italian Pioneers Association contacted all the provincial federations to support a move to have the Government appropriate funds with which to buy cloth and shoes for needs school children. The cloth will be used to make smocks for the children and will partially help to revitalize the Italian textile industry which at present is going through a slump.
	The National Council also assigned a quota to each federation for turning out special "peace cockades" which were to be sent to the People's Congress in Vienna, scheduled for 5 December 1952. The Pescara Federation was assigned a quota of 10 cockedes.
